

I would like to share an update with you on media appearances, in-district events, and committee hearings that I have had in the last few weeks of the 118th Congress. It is an honor to continue fighting for you!

I was featured on the DailyWire for my stance against gender affirming care

My two daughters will not change in front of biological men. As an adult you have the right to make your own decision, but when it comes to children, that's a different story. It is our obligation to protect them.

I used the "Food Pyramid" to dismantle the left's arguments in support of "Gender Affirming Care"

If it were up to my children, they would eat ice cream for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. But as parents, we have to step in and make adult decisions for them and for their own protection.

Last week I introduced a bipartisan bill with Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee: The "Stop Human Trafficking in School Zones Act"

As a father of three, I am deeply focused on protecting children from human trafficking and bringing the perpetrators of these heinous crimes to justice. I am proud to stand with Congresswoman Sheila Jackson Lee on this meaningful step to protect our kids.

I grilled Secretary Mayorkas on the security of our nation's border during a Judiciary Committee Hearing

It's NO surprise that under the "leadership" of Biden, Harris and Mayorkas that we can't secure our border, because we can't even secure the White House. The White House has become a trap house and our southern border has become the epicenter of a thousand tragedies. America deserves better.

I had the honor of delivering a speech to the young men and women who attended the Young America's Foundation National Conservative Student Conference

Remember, the night is always darkest before the dawn, and the dawn is coming. Stand strong and never stop fighting, for this is the greatest country in the world.

I joined Fox & Friends to discuss the storm clouds of impeachment hovering over the Biden Administration's head

As the commander in chief, Bide's commitment to hold DHS Secretary Mayorkas accountable is non existent. He is clearly putting the priorities of our country in last place.

I showcased where this failed administration's priorities lie on our energy supply during a Natural Resources Committee Hearing

The reason why inflation is ravaging American families and why energy prices have never been higher is because democrats have America's priorities backwards. We should be choosing the middle class before the Rice Whale.
